

East Metro Youth Services presents

PROMISING TREATMENT PRACTICES FOR YOUTH INVOLVED — AT RISK OF DOMESTIC HUMAN TRAFFICKING

EVENT DETAILS

WHEN

Wednesday, November 19th
9:30AM - 4:30PM

WHERE

The 519 Church Street
Community Centre
Toronto, ON

WHY

To inform and collaborate on promising treatment practices for domestic youth survivors, and to establish a citywide coordination of services to serve this specific population.

WHO CAN BENEFIT

- Child and youth workers
- Social workers employed in the youth justice system
- School officials
- Youth outreach workers
- Health care workers

Cost

$75.00

*Includes Light Breakfast & Lunch

GUEST SPEAKERS AND TOPICS

Youth Survivors

What helped?

Carly Kalish, East Metro Youth Services

Engagement, Questioning Techniques, Risk Factors, Cycle of Exploitation, Empowerment

Peter Brady, Toronto Police Service Sex Crimes Unit

Prevalence and Community Partnerships

Emily Dixon, Lawyer

Current Legal State

Michele Anderson, Covenant House

Preparing Youth for Court

David O'Brien, East Metro Youth Services

System Response, Partnership and Collaboration

Ruth Pluznick, Oolagen

Narrative Response

Mary Rella, Yorktown Family Services

Attachment and Complex Trauma

Julia Vanderheul, LOFT

Case Management/Housing/Employment

TO REGISTER:
dobrien@emys.on.ca

In collaboration with:

East Metro Youth Services presents

PROMISING TREATMENT PRACTICES FOR YOUTH INVOLVED — AT RISK OF DOMESTIC HUMAN TRAFFICKING

EVENT DETAILS

Youth Survivors What helped? 9:30AM - 4:30PM

Carly Kalish, East Metro Youth Services

WHERE The Community Toronto, 519 ON

Peter Brady, Toronto Police Service Sex Crimes Unit Prevalence and Community Partnerships

Emily Dixon, Lawyer Current Legal State

WHO • Child CAN and BENEFIT

Ruth Pluznick, Oolagen Narrative Response

Mary Rella, Yorktown Family Services Attachment and Complex Trauma

TO REGISTER: dobrien@emys.on.ca